MEN'S CHAIR'S WELCOME

Hello all and welcome along to another packed weekend of hockey for Clifton Robinsons Hockey Club, the #BlueArmy.

We're entering the final stretch for many of our squads across the Men's and Women's clubs, with a lot still to play for in the remaining few games. Best of luck to all our teams home and away this weekend, whether you're chasing promotion or striving to finish as high in your league as possible, the Blue Army is behind you.

This weekend, in the M1's penultimate home game of the season, we welcome the players, coaches and fans of Exeter University, who make the trip up the M5 to take on Coach Hacker's charges. The game promises to be a tight mid table clash between two exciting and attacking hockey playing teams, so please get along to Clifton College for a 12pm start on Sunday if you can.

I'd also like to take this opportunity to thank Cockburns Port, an ongoing sponsor of the Men's 1s Man of the Match for the past couple of seasons. Their continued support is gratefully appreciated, and we look forward to maintaining our partnership over coming seasons.

Have a great weekend of hockey all. Go well.

- Andy 'Boy' Hughes,
Men's Chair, Clifton Robinsons HC

CLUB OVERVIEW

What is usually a section full of joy and good news has been a bit harder to fulfill this week, with a few damaging results recently which have had to put the champagne on ice for a few promotion chasing sides, and ensured a competitive finish to the season is required. Our M2, MO40 and MO50 have all bowed out in the latter stages in their respective national trophies, although all in respectable fashion after decent runs.

However, some sides have remained firm. Notably, the M5s look on course for a top finish, despite a first loss of the season while the M7s can be promoted before they next fulfill a fixture should results go their way,

Our first teams have bounced back from disappointment too, a strong away win from the M1s much needed last week.

Top story has to go to the W1 however! Having finished in the Bottom 6 in the first stage of the season, every point has been crucial since Christmas. Indeed, they have won their first three games to ensure they have made the 'play-off' round for the final section of the league. The points reset and the team shall battle out with 3 others in a round robin tournament to attempt to advance to finals weekend for the second consecutive year. Back the blues!

Finally - a reminder to keep signing up for the end of season dinner! W1, W2 and M4 currently leading the way - it's not an event to be missed!

LAST TIME OUT: FAREHAM 0 - 1 CRHC

Clifton Robinsons travelled away to Fareham looking to end their three game losing streak with expectation that the South Coast ultras would be in full force making this fixture a tough away day.

Clifton had high hopes coming into this game based off the 8 goal fiesta in the reverse fixture and started strong dominating the midfield. A plethora of chances whistled past the post at all angles leaving the game tied at the quarter break.

Detailed tactics employed by coach David Hacker saw Clifton take the lead in the second through specialist flicker Tom 'Slammin' Salmon. Clifton continued to push throughout and further chances from Rowlings, Hocking and Stone failed to convert keeping the score to 1 at the half time break.

Resilient defence stopped Fareham early in their attacks and this gave Clifton the platform to push on, continued chances were missed and the tension continued to build. Fareham worked two chances late on hitting the post and Clifton requiring Andy Hughes to net mind the other. Statistics would likely show a different scoreline but Clifton managed to grind out the 3 points and a 0-1 victory at a ground feared by many.

Clifton Robinsons have two home games on the bounce against Exeter University and ISCA, Robbies hope to build on this platform and claim further points this weekend at their fortress Clifton College.
